National Leader to Address Los Angeles Organizing Association – Announces Local Book Signings

The growing professional organizing industry in Los Angeles continues to be inspired by Barry Izsak, President of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO), “The Organizing Authority.”

Izsak will address the NAPO-LA chapter membership on Monday, February 27. If you are one of the over 400 professional organizers in Southern California or are interested in starting your own consulting business, you will benefit from his presentation, “What’s Happening at NAPO and the Secrets of Success.” “Izsak will share NAPO’s Strategic Plan on the eve of the organization’s March National Conference, to be held in Boston,” states Chris McKenry NAPO-LA Chapter President. “Barry will also share two decades of entrepreneurial expertise and inspire members and guests to take our businesses to the next level.”

The event will be held at the Olympic Collection, 11301 Olympic Boulevard, West Los Angeles, beginning at 6:15 p.m.

Izsak is the owner of Arranging It All, a successful professional organizing firm located in Austin, Texas, and is the author of Organizing Your Garage...In No Time, released by Que Publishing in 2005. Izsak is an industry leader, in high demand both as a speaker and trainer for organizations and major corporations nationwide, as well as serving as an authoritative voice in home and office organizational trends and news. While in Los Angeles, Izsak will be signing his popular book on Saturday, February 25, from 2 pm – 5 pm at Barnes & Noble, Glendale Fashion Center, 245 N. Glendale Avenue, Glendale. If you are in the South Bay, Izsak can be found on Sunday, February 26, 3 pm – 5 pm, at Barnes & Noble, Del Amo Fashion Center, 21400 Hawthorne Boulevard, Torrance.

NAPO-LA is dedicated to bringing Southern California Area Professional Organizers together through networking, education, professional growth, industry updates, support, and public awareness. In 1985, the National Association of Professional Organizers began in Los Angeles, with a dozen individuals realizing a new profession was in its infancy. Today, NAPO National membership includes over 3,500 members, including organizing consultants, speakers, trainers, authors, and manufacturers of organizing products. The Los Angeles Chapter has over 100 members dedicated to enhancing the lives of clients by designing systems and processes using organizing principles and through transferring organizing skills.
